

Group Photo

Discuss: How many situations call for a group photo. Share your ideas with the class.

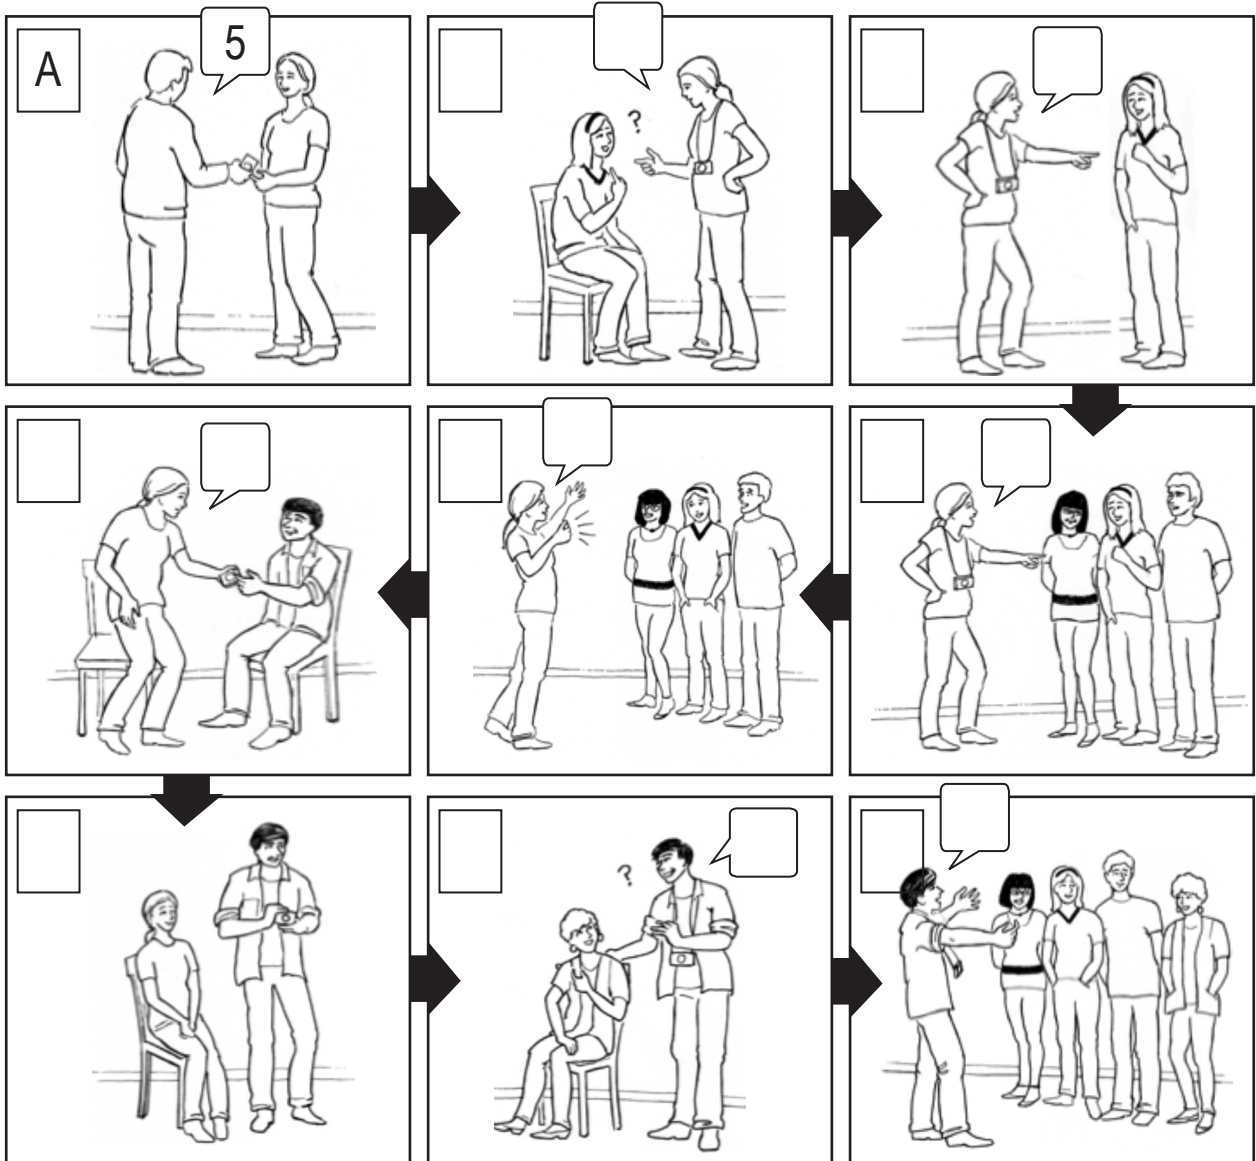

Match: Look at the pictures below showing the steps for taking a group photo. In the spaces provided, write the letter of what to do and what to say for each step.

What to do:

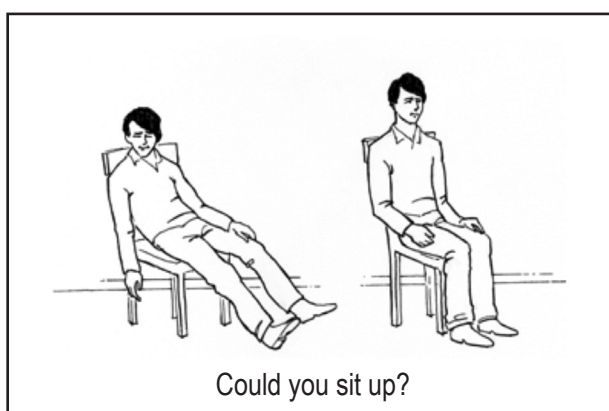

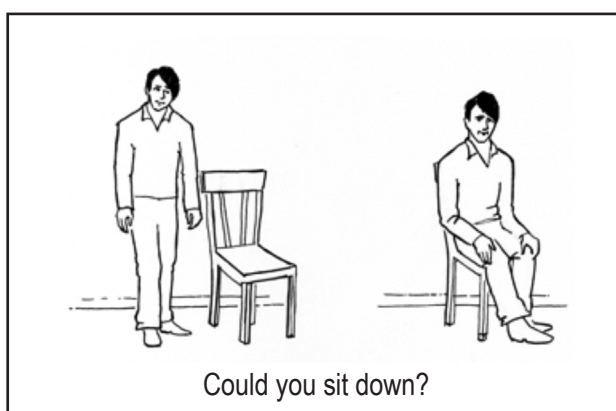

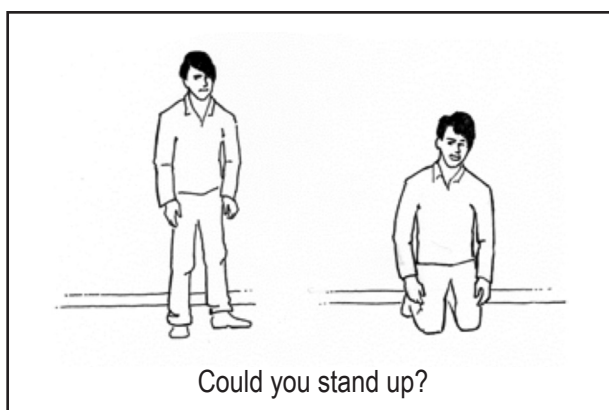

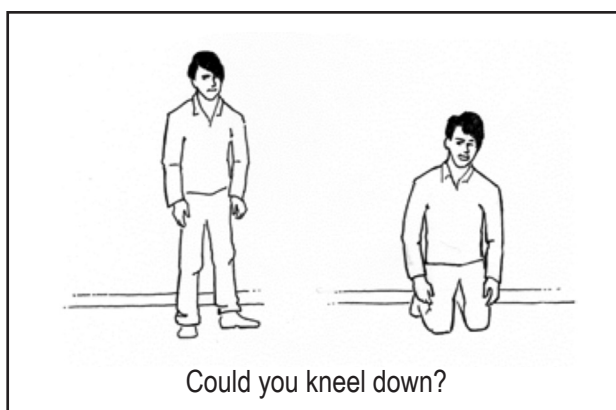

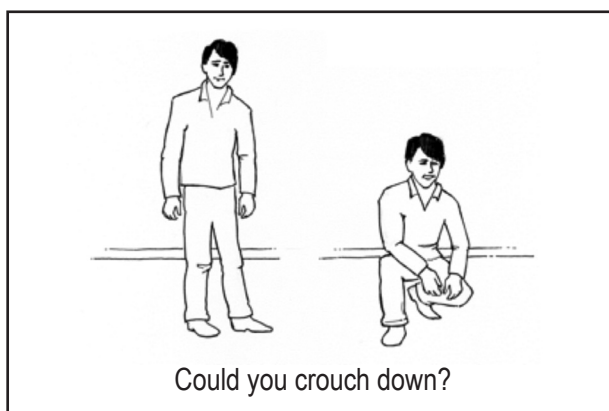

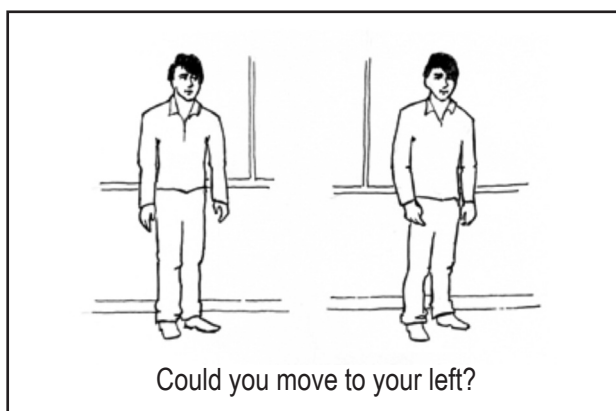

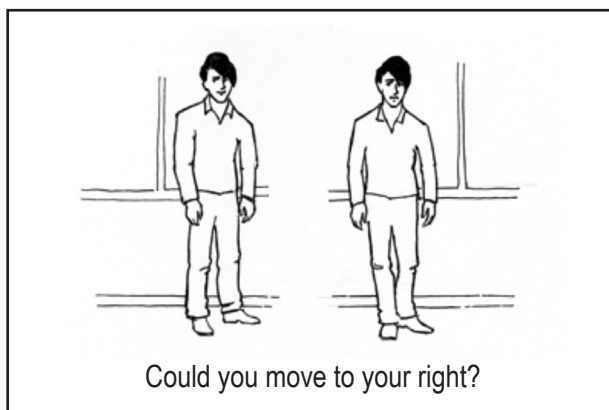

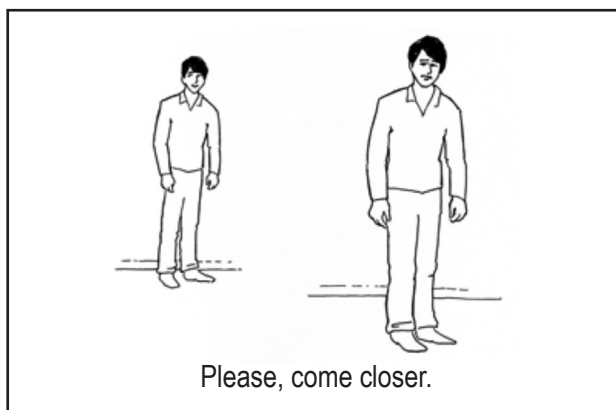

- A. Give the camera to a classmate.
- B. Get everyone to smile and take the photo.
- C. Tell the classmate to go to the front.
- D. Tell the classmate where to stand in relation to the others.
- E. Ask a classmate what his or her name is.
- F. Sit down.

What to say:

1. Could you stand on the end next to Julian?
2. Could you stand between Audrey and Julian?
3. Please, could you go to the front of the room?
4. Say, "Cheese!"
5. Could you take the next photo?
6. What is your name?

Visual Dictionary of Useful Phrases

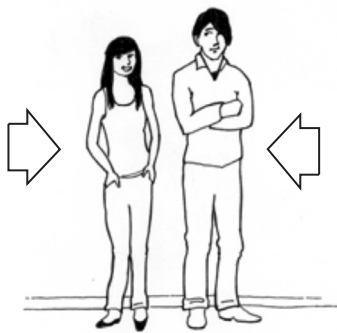

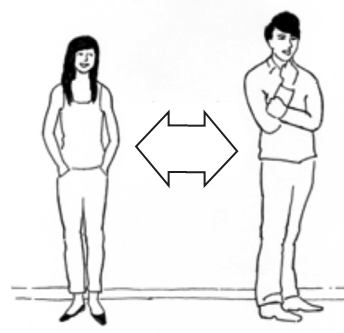

Aurelie, please stand next to Philip.
Aurelie, could you stand beside Philip?

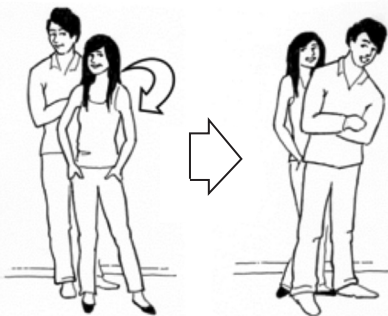

Aurelie, please sit next to Philip.
Aurelie, could you sit beside Philip?

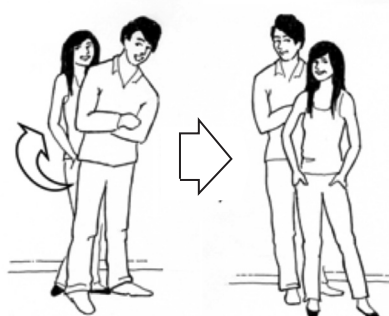

Could you stand closer together?

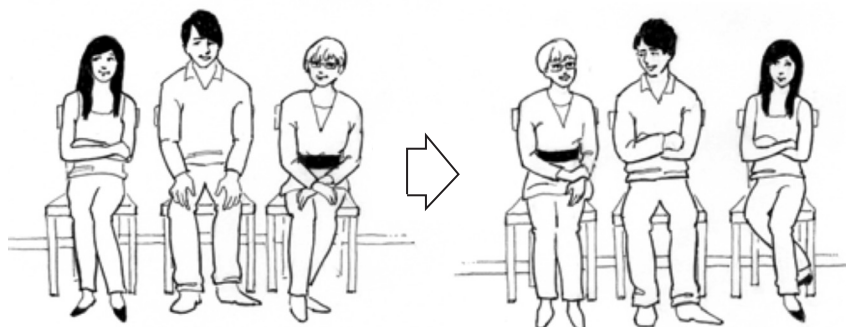

Could you stand further apart?

Philip, could you stand in front of Aurelie?

Philip, could you stand behind Aurelie?

Aurelie, could you switch places with Catherine?